SAND'S SARSAPARILLA.

FOR the removal and permanent cure of all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, or habit of the system.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, Rheumatism, Obstinate Cutaneous Eruptions, Pimples, or Pustules on the Face, Blotches, Biles, Chronic Sore Eyes Ring Worm or Tetter, Scald Head, Enlargement and Pain of the Bones and Joints, Stubborn Ulcers, Syphilitic Symptoms, Syphilis, or Lowdoys, and Diseases arising from an injudicious use of Mercury; Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia or Impudence in Life.

Also, Chronic Constitutional Diseases, will be removed by this Preparation.

If there is a phenomenon on earth which superior beings can not enjoy, and on which they might almost envy man, the pure action of it is the power of relieving pain. How consoling then is the consciousness of having been the instrument of rescuing thousands from misery, or limiting our fellow creatures from a long train of suffering, relieved, and what is still greater and more enduring can be produced by the use of Sand's Sarsaparilla. The unfortunate victim of hereditary disease, with swollen glands, ulcerated sinews, and bones half rotted away, has been restored to health and vigor. The Scrofulous patient, covered with ulcers, loathsome to himself, and his attendants, has been made whole. Hundreds of persons, who had ground hopelessly for years under consumption and all the dreadful consequences, attendant on any other complaints springing from a derangement of the organs, are surprised at the elasticity, have been raised as it were from the rack of disease, and now, with renovated constitutions, gladly testify to the efficacy of the wonderful Sarsaparilla.

Copy of a letter received from Mrs Angenia S. Hill, Sign of Nassau, Union, Lincoln County, Maine, relative about eight days. Comment on such evidence is unnecessary.

Messrs. Sands: Gentlemen, It is with the greatest pleasure, I make known to you, that my health, which is rapidly improving every day. There is a marvelous change in my feelings, which followed me for many years, and for years I have taken no one knows, I am travelling, & I sell the genuine medicine.

Sarsaparilla, Gentlemen, I have one single sign of my disease, which I attribute to the use of that time, and wonderful to tell, on the 20th of October, I went to be baptized, and I was immersed in the deep water, which I have continued to wear since, which is five nights, the water never touched my person, expecting to be sick, on my limbs are growing smaller, and on one side there appears to be some flesh growing. The water is going off by perspiration, I shall be very free. It is about two days since it reached my feet, so as to leave wrinkles on my skin. Nobody ever was so surprised at my cure. I tried your Sarsaparilla. It is continue to use it while there is a single sign of disease. I could not stop any physician called to help, and friends gave me up as dying; they expected my death every time the hour of strange gets to find out a remedy and send it to me before the lamp went out. The remedy was sent, "He that heard prayed, and sent the poor lendeth unto the Lord, and that which he hath given will pay him again."

I must close my letter by subscribing myself your friend, ARENETH S. PHILLIPS.

Work to Day.

The Aldermen of the city will be in session this day to correct the list of voters. The lists are very imperfect and should be purged and made right. Let the Whig committees see to the work to day. Do not, friends, grudge the time thus spent. A strong Whig vote in our city on Monday next is very desirable. Every Whig owes it to the good cause to work until a full vote is cast in Bangor on Monday next.

American Rocking Chairs—Yankee Enterprise.

The New York Express mentions the fact that in the London newspapers 'American Rocking Chairs' are advertised and noticed and the comfort and luxurious ease of these wooden parcelles are most elaborately delineated.

The Rocking Chair is seems is an American contrivance. In Philadelphia, they still are called "Boston Rocking Chairs," by which we infer the Yankees contrived this, as they have done most of our household articles of ease and utility. Some Yankees have opened shops in London and Liverpool for the extensive sale of American manufactured articles.

☞ We learn that a gang of Horse thieves who have been carrying on a high game in Pataquis county for some time past, have at length been discovered and will be so closely pursued by justice as to break up the whole nest. Some men who have aspired to influential stations in society are deeply implicated in the transactions of this gang and will probably be fully exposed or made to pay over large pecuniary sums to sufferers.

☞ The reputation of some of our States has an unfavorable effect in England in the social intercourse between the English and American people. As one indication of this it is reported that an American gentleman of most estimable character and acknowledged talents, was blackballed at one of the first London Clubs, because he was an American.

An insane prisoner in the eastern penitentiary at Philadelphia, killed one of the nurses on Friday morning with a plank which he tore up from the floor of his cell.

The accounts of rascality and fraud in relation to turnlization fo foreigners are very numerous in the Philadelphia and New York papers.

☞ The Mechanic Association will meet at their Hall this evening. A general attendance is requested.

☞ The body of Mr Joel Longfellow, drowned at the Corporation Mills on Wednesday, was recovered on Thursday Morning.

THE WEEKLY VOLUME

A project of furnishing books by mail at newspaper rates has been revived in Philadelphia by Mr Lloyd P. Smith. The well known "Waldie's" system of furnishing books by weekly publications is again brought out under the direction of the editor of the Waldie's Library. A specimen number for January has been issued, and appears well.

THE LAW REPORTER—November 1844.

This valuable magazine, containing its usual variety of legal decisions and miscellaneous law intelligence, has been received from the publishers and is for sale at the Bookstores.

Among the deaths occasioned by the melancholy disaster of the steamer Lucy Walker on the Mississippi, was that of Gen. Pegram of Richmond, President of the Bank of Virginia. He was a gentleman of distinguished character, of high talents and accomplishments, and greatly esteemed.

Destruction of the Nestorian Mission!

The N. Y. American publishes the following extract from a letter dated

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 28, 1844.

"I write in great haste, to inform you that the mission at Oroomiah, has been broken up (the schools being discontinued,) by the Nestorians themselves, with Mar Yohanna, (the Bishop who visited the United States) at their head. Many reasons are assigned, but there is a report which comes from an authoritative source, that the Nestorians often begged to have their scriptures printed for them, but instead, the missionaries are continually making and printing books of their own, and are always preaching to them about leaving off their fasts, &c. Mar Shimon, (the Patriarch,) says they shall be expelled from the country. This which follows is the extract from his letter:

"We would farther make you acquainted with what has just happened in Oroomiah, among those Americans who are residing there. Quite a quarrel has taken place between the Bishops and people on one side, and the Americans on the other, on account of some improper proceedings of the latter in the said town. This led to a council of the zealous and true shepherds, with their rational sheep, and they closed up and disbanded the vain school which the Americans had established in Oroomiah. We, moreover, have written to them a letter, under our seal, that the schools should remain closed, and that the Americans should be sent away from there."

The above letter was communicated to us from a reasonable source.

Foreign Items.

Treason in South Carolina in Alliance with Locolocosm in the North.

While New York and Pennsylvania are urged by the Locoloco party to sustain Mr. Polk, because he is in favor of the Tariff; in South Carolina, he is to be sustained because he is against the Tariff.

The New Orleans Tropic of the 23d October, has this statement respecting Mr. McDuffie's declaration; and Mr. McDuffie is the great man of the State which forced open the country the nomination of Mr Polk.

"We have before us this morning, through the polite attention of a friend, a private business letter from a gentleman of Augusta, Geo., which says:

AUGUSTA, GEO., Oct. 15th, 1844.

I am a Whig but not a politician. I have no readiness for the profession; it is out of my regular sphere of action, and is, furthermore, both profitless and troublesome. But still the fire burns within me, when I witness the barefaced designs of treason to our country that are broached by the Locofocos of Georgia and Carolina.

Said Gen McDuffie within my hearing today—"Before High Heaven I proclaim it, that the non-recisal of the Yankee Whig Tariff of 1842 will sever the Provinces of South Carolina, the division of her southern sister States, and the formation of a southern confederacy upon which will fall the genius, the sword, the purse, that will cause her plains to blossom like the rose, and her cities to rise to the wealth and grandeur of London, Paris, and New York."—Such is the language of treason to an American mind! What a commentary upon the principles of the man, and the party that supports him!"

Henry Clay.

As his adversaries know and regard him.

JAMES BUCHANAN of Penn. in a speech before the Van Buren State Convention of Pa. on the 5th of August, 1840, said, (referring to the preference shown that time of Gen. Harrison,)

"The Whig party had, in Mr. CLAY, a candidate of whom they might have been justly proud—a man of a bold and fearless heart—a man of high and commanding eloquence, and a man of distinguished ability. Although opposed to his political principles, yet I have ever felt for him the highest regard.

Col. RICHARD M. JOHNSON, in a letter published in the St. Louis Mill Boy, July 20, 1844, says:

"I have been in public life for forty years, and in that time have been associated with all the great men of the country.

"I will place Davidson first, then HENRY CLAY. Take CLAY all in all, he has not an equal in the Union, either in the North or the South, the East or the West. In moral courage, in physical courage, in oratory, in patriotism, and in every noble quality, he is without a superior."

THOMAS H. BENTON, in an Address to the People of Missouri, 1844, says of Mr. Clay:

"The principles which would govern Mr CLAY's Administration, if elected, are well known to the nation. They have been displayed upon the floor of Congress for the last seventeen years. They constitute a system of AMERICAN POLICY, based on the Agriculture and Manufactures of our own country—upon interior as well as foreign Commerce—upon internal as well as sea-board Improvement—upon the independence of the New World, and close commercial alliances with Mexico and South America. If it is said that others would pursue the same system, we answer, that the founder of a system is the natural executor of his own work; that the most efficient protector of American iron, lead, hemp, wool and cotton, would be the triumphant champion of the new Tariff."

So wrote THOMAS H. BENTON twenty years ago. The principles we contend for are precisely those he so forcibly commended at 1824; our candidate is the same HENRY CLAY. Who shall doubt his triumph?

A late English paper says that guano, the new manure, is extensively used in the adulteration of snuff.

CONCERT.

THE CONGO MELODISTS, assisted by little

OLE BULL,

WHO have met with unprecedented success in Portland, where they had the honor of giving seven concerts, to fashionable and crowded houses, respectfully inform the inhabitants of Bangor, that they will give their 4th concert THIS EVENING Nov. 8th, at Brown's Hall.

The Company is composed of five skilful musicians, and from the immense success which attended them wherever they have appeared, they are confident in promising their auditors the most irresistibly ludicrous as well as scientific entertainment that they have ever listened to. Their Songs are sung in harmony, with fine voices, in the style of the Tyrolean Serenade.

The Little Ole Bull, whose remarkable exertion upon the violin has been the wonder of the day, will execute a variety of difficult Solos. He is but six years old, and is admitted by professors of music, to be the best violin player of his age in the world—He is a pupil of the celebrated Kreisser, and he fair to rival the old Ole Bull, who is now exciting great a sensation
